

"HAPPY BHOTI LANGUAGE DAY"

BHOTI LANGUAGE DAY HELD AT B.D.S.V,
MANDOGALU , DISTT. MANDI(H.P) APRIL 01.2024:

Baudh Darshan Sanskrit Vidyalaya, Mandogalu today celebrated “Bhoti Language Day” in the Institute campus to create awareness about the language and its rich cultural heritage among students and faculty members. The program started with formal welcome address by Headmaster. On the occasion Rev. Konchok Gyaltzen and Sh. Kameshwer Negi give a brief introduction about Bhoti Language and the struggle of Ladakhi people to include it in the 8th schedule of the Indian constitute . The students participated in the painting, writing contest , poem writing and speech completions organized , to celebrate the Bhoti language Day.

Rev. Konchok Tsultrim Secretary Drigung Kargyud Thekchok Otsalling Gonpa ,Mandogalu very kindly graced the occasion as the chief guest and delivered a thought provoking and inspiring massage to the children and appreciated the school contribution in the promotion of Bhoti language since the very inception . he also expressedhis view on the complex nature of language and culture and how it is important to know one’s native language to have a better understanding one one’s culture and history .

Headmaster Sh. Raman Kumar , B.D.S.V , Mandogalu , expressed his appreciation to the team of Bhoti and Philosophy teacher for organizing this program in a short span of time. Headmaster also says his message for the students, teachers and each and every citizen of Ladakh and Himalayan region people, who takes pride in calling Bhoti language as our mother tongue language. Headmaster also informed that the Bhoti language is spoken across a vast region of the transe Himalaya form Baluchistan , Ladakh to the far east of Tawang district of Arunachal Pradesh , besides Tibet , Bhutan and Nepal . The program ended with a formal vote of thanks by Rev. Konchok Rinchen .

ACHARYA THONMI SAMBHOTA